THE BRANDON BALLAD.

Especially Dedicated Without Permission to the Honoured Member of the Provincial Legislature.

Manitoba's hapless plains, I have a vision Of the North-West, will make a great commotion
The mighty questions of the day, the Grits have gone adrift on admiral's way up and down the hill, by their callant Admiral Sifton.

Conserv.
We'll vote for our Wode with, Conservative
The man of the people, shall to parliament go for the value of the county, deep it who can make it stand that due is their man.

Sifton's name in his address, that one short year ago
sent him to your parliament, your wants your rights to know, his name he'd confound, and all our wishes remain!

He'd be a much longer year, ere we send him
there again.
Conserv.
We the Admiral built a hobby-horse, into Par liament to ride, disappointed it disallowance, and something bad
happened:
the horse was such a vicious brute, it really was a sin,
to trust his friends to back him, cause he knew he would not win.

Conserv.
Now Sifton, now my hobby's dead, I've nothing
in my hands,
With five and forty thousand dollars, I'll buy the public lands,
and to Norway John he takes himself, it really was too bad.

And makes him sell to someone else, what Johnny never had.
Sifton,
The Admiral then his armour donned, and cleared the way for war, he'd be, I'll down monopoly, and crush the F. R.

straightway he called his daughter mate, which was the son of Peter, because you craft upon the sea, let us prepare to meet her.

Conserv.
A stronger searer drew that ship, until they could discern Woodworth on her bow, and Woodworth on her stern,
With out the Admiral and his mate, in such fear we are told,
they fled along the deck, and tumbled down the hold.

Conserv.
Woodworth raised his head, and with loud voice he cried
this is my home, and Brandon is my pride, and the glove to everyone, who dares her pro prietor star,
I can now her champion, for ever from this day.

Conserv.
The spoke the men of Brandon, let all the cannon see
We need our suffrage at your feet, and you, our chief shall be long may the name of Woodworth last, long live that noble name
We'll fight for Manitoba, and then for Brandon's fame.

The Brandon Daily Mail.

NO. 104. JANUARY 13, 1895.

WANTED.—At the MAIL OFFICE, a smart intelligent lad about 12 years of age to deliver the MAIL to regular city subscribers and learn the printing business. Good encouragement will be offered to a boy who means business.

BRANDON BUDGET.

A Manitoba sky last night.
Thermometer 20° below zero last night at 10 o'clock.

Two new stores have been placed in St. Matthews Church.
Pat Craghan comes before his Worship Mayor Winter today for assault.

Election will remember that January 13th is the day when the voters of the city, the voting in Brandon will be under the old Act.

Singling and snow shoveling was the recreation of young Brandon last Sabbath, in which sports they are adept.

Messrs. Sorensen & Johnson have been awarded the contract of supplying wood for Brandon School House, which he puts at $7.75 per cord.

The maturation statement by our rather previous contemporary, the Winnipeg Free Press, concerning the Brandon Club being closed is not true.

An additional stove has been placed in the interior of the Presbyterian Church, the old formerly experienced by worshippers of that body will now be modified.

Andre Hubert has contracted to pack 100 tons of ice this winter, and distribute it at a very reasonable price to the people of Brandon. Mr. Bennett, Immigration Agent, is also packing in a good supply for the use of immigrants building their summer.

As Saturday's train snow pile attached left the station, the plough caught the new siding, tearing up some tracks and causing some slight damage. The cause of the accident was owing to the plough, at a certain point being built too near the line of rail.

Perhaps the following may be interesting to some parties as showing the most profitable investment, wool or coal. Messrs. Howman & Co., Ltd., of the City of Winnipeg, have sold to the tune of $10,000, Mr. Bennett, for the same period, consumed wood, expenses amounting to $11 thus showing a difference of $1.

A NEW NORTHWESTERN JOURNAL.—We have received a copy of the Brandon Daily Mail, a new paper which was started at Brandon, Manitoba, about a fortnight ago. The "Mail" is a bright, new, well edited sheet, which would be no discredit to good editors, and we wish it abundant success. Brandon is not yet two years old; but it has now two daily papers.—Winters N. S. Chronicle.

Mr. Manly, of Philadelphia, whom we mentioned some time ago as being about to open a gymnasium and boxing school in this city, has engaged the hall in the lower flat of the Murdoch House and goes to Winnipeg today for the purpose of purchasing the apparatus in the shape of the horizontal, trapeze, swords, etc. He has also secured the services of a local gentleman and a "chitter" for the opening exhibition which will take place shortly.

We were shown a fine specimen of cats in the possession of Mr. Bennett, Immigration Agent. The species is the "Black Arabian," and was gifted from the farm of Mr. John Dorn, Little Souris. The stock measured six feet, and the head, containing 126 grains, about 14 inches and is part of a yield of 20 bushels to the acre. Mr. Bennett has also in his possession choice collections of Fife, wheat, red, white, all of which he intends sending to New York, to be placed on exhibition by a gentleman of that city.

Messrs. Quigley Bros. is the name of a new firm shortly opened up business in the new Richardson Block. Mr. Quigley, senior, is the late partner of the firm of Atkins & Quigley who have long been carried on an extensive business in this city. Messrs. Quigley have a large assortment of general merchandise which is dexterously arranged on shelves placed on both sides of their spacious premises. They are importing a select stock of spring goods from the best western markets, and we have no doubt that the new firm, judging from their stock, will be a success.

The present attacks which the Evening Herald has been making on the licensed Victrolas of this area is the subject of much comment amongst all classes of our citizens and the unfeeling nature of the philistine, which have frequently appeared of late in that sheet, have no way approached the organ as a professional rib-wadler, and a journal that gives very much of its way to make everything from a social point of view here appear as bad as possible. If the Evening Herald could only be reduced to a set well enough alone, and cease slandering Brandon, and stop its attempt to figure the city and the reputation of some of its most respected citizens, it might then by a chain to common truthfulness and decency. The very only thing that imparts its columns should endeavor to reform themselves in the place of lecturing those who are not in the place of the State rebukes of those political lepers.

CHURCHES AND PULPITS.

Rev. T. W. Hall, of Souris City, preached an excellent sermon in the morning at 10 o'clock from Isa. 44:1 and a part of the 11th verse: "Watchman, what of the night?"

Rev. John Ferries, B. A., of Brandon, preached at 2:30 from Hebrews X and XXV. Not forsaking the assembling of yourselves together. This sermon was pointed and earnest, and was listened to with great attention.

Rev. W. Bridgman preached in the evening at 7:30 from the organ kindly loaned by Mr. Dorn was made to do excellent service. The collections during the day would have done credit to a much larger place. Chatter is to be congratulated on the possession of such a most church edifice.

Teams leave Mr. Kirkpatrick's store, 6th street, and Robinson Bros., Rosser Avenue, at 5:30 this evening.

In St. Matthew's Church on Sabbath evening, the Rev. Mr. Boydell preached a very able discourse from St. Luke's gospel, 14th chap., 33rd verse. "So likewise whosoever he be of you that forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple."

Mr. Duff, of Toronto, preached in the Methodist church last Sabbath morning, and in the evening the Rev. Mr. Hall, of Souris City, preached an elaborate sermon from the 15th verse of the 17th psalm, "As for me, I will behold thy face in righteousness; I shall be satisfied when I wake with thy likeness." Under the first head the rev. gentleman spoke of the enjoyment of believers here on earth, on account of their faith in Jesus Christ, and dwelt at some length on the early Christians, striving from the world and living hermits for the purpose of holding uninterrupted communion with God.

Last night, in the Presbyterian church, the pulpit was occupied by the Rev. Dr. Duff, of Toronto, who preached an excellent sermon from Revelation 22nd chapter, and 17th verse.

The Rev. A. McDonald held a Baptist meeting and Bible class in the school house on Sabbath.

PERSONALS.

Mr. G. B. Angus, chairman of Public Works, leaves today for Paris, Ont., on an unpleasant duty. We are sorry to hear that Mrs. Angus is ill.

Mr. McDonald, of the "Canada Life Association" is in the city, and is meeting with success in his canvass for insurance policies.

Mr. Lyons, of the firm of Messrs. Angus & Lyons, has returned from visiting his friends at Southport, Ont.

C. P. R. CLATTER.

List of freight and names of consignees which arrived at the C.P.R. Station Saturday evening, Jan. 13th, at 5 p.m.:

1 car sundries for J. A. Carlisle; 2 cars wood, Geo. Andrew; 1 car wood, Kelly and Sutcliffe; 3 cars wood, J. E. Woodworth; 1 car fresh meat, W. Winter; 1 do stock and effects, Angus & Mann; 1 do iron, Geo. Ripple & Co.

Two freight trains arrived from Winnipeg last night in close succession.

The train bearing freight from Winnipeg that arrived Sunday morning was the first since Thursday morning.

The track is now clear between Regina and Winnipeg.

"BRIE" Arg's View of Preachers.

I like the preachers. They hold us back from going to extremes. They are the conservative. They are good citizens and set us a good example. They are the balance-wheel of society, the scotch to the wagon, the air brakes to the train, the pendulum to the clock. They are like the Sabbath that gives us rest and peace. They are to society what the judge is to the law. I love 'em all, and when they are blotted out which God forbid, I want to go too. In sickness, in trouble, in affliction, yes, in the last hour, when they are with us and comfort us while the busy world goes on—God bless the preachers of this land—the preachers of every creed that teaches love to our Creator and love and kindness to one another. Nevertheless, I sometimes feel sorry for the preacher's children, for the good man is so afraid he will do wrong he loaves the other way. He did me good the other day when I saw one of them take his children to see the circus procession. It was so kind and considerate. If they can't let the little chap see the circus, do let 'em go to the procession. By and by, maybe, they will get old enough to be trusted within the circus and see the pretty horses in the ring, and the men in the ground, hear the clown crack his jokes, and laugh at him because he is such a fool. I don't imagine these folks who are always alighting whether a thing is funny or not, and I never did like to see a pretty girl gawling at everything that happened; but still it is better to laugh than to cry. The world is not draped in mourning. The big laughing and the butterfly that are in it, and the happy sunlight. At night the lighted charms on the hearth and the katydid sings his evening song; sweet flowers are blooming everywhere, and Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. All nature is happy except a few snakes and hyenas, and I don't want to be like them.

Too Fond of Dogs.

An old story is told of the French poet, Alfred de Musset. When again nominated for membership in the French Academy it was imperatively necessary for him, if he really desired—and what Frenchman does does not—to take a seat among the "Eternally Immortals," to pay visits of courtesy to those who already occupy the seats. De Musset, having become a candidate for immortality, set out on his visits, and one day called on a distinguished seigneurie. At the gate he was met by a horribly ugly dog, which fawned upon him and made sad work of his clean clothes. However, seeing that his wished-for patron owned the dog, the poet made the best of the situation, and the dog followed him to the drawing room, where he made himself perfectly at home. When Innechon was announced, De Musset, to his great disgust, saw the obnoxious creature follow the host into the dining room, but his eyes up on the table, and quietly steal a leg of chicken. "Ah! said the poet to his host, 'you are fond of dogs, I see.' " "Fond of dogs?" roared the seigneurie, "I hate the sight of them, and I endured your beast because it was your dog!" A burst of laughter followed this, for in reality the dog was a cur of low degree and belonged to nobody.
